

Pharmacy delivery and coordination technology that reduces medication errors and readmissions

Market Challenge for US Healthcare Industry

- $100b in annual preventable costs associated with medication errors and lack of access to prescriptions
- Medication errors lead to extended patient hospital stays, costing on average $40m in annual penalties per hospital
- Patient readmissions costing on average $5m in annual penalties per hospital

Why adherent360?

- Pharmacy decision support that follows patients through transitions of care
- Decrease length of stay by ensuring accurate admission medication lists
- Reduce readmissions by providing a discharge meds to beds program
- adherent360 is:
 - Automated discharge meds to beds delivery technology
 - AI based decision support that lowers clinical resource time by over 50% (coming soon)
 - Home delivery coordination enabling full formulary availability (coming soon)

About adherent360

- Industry first pharmacy delivery and coordination platform connecting providers and patients from admission through discharge and follow up care
- Streamlines burden on physicians, nurses, and pharmacists
- Patient first technology creating a return on investment through improvement of patient outcomes

adherent360 will:

Create an average of $20m in annual savings per hospital

Provide protection from liability and patient safety events

Reduce readmissions by over 50%

Reduce adverse drug events by over 65%